

Acknowledgements

We gratefully acknowledge the following individuals and organisations for giving generously of their time and expertise.

The Donkey Sanctuary, Sidmouth, Devon (UK)

The Eseltjiesrus Educational Project would not exist without the generous support and funding of The Donkey Sanctuary. Thank you! In addition we wish to thank them for permission to use the resources on which part of this donkey information material is based.

Annemarie and Johan van Zijl (Eseltjiesrus Donkey Sanctuary)

For help with translation, editing, proofreading and technical information on donkeys

Colleen Higgs and Patricia Rademeyer

For help with copyright

David Bedford

For line drawings

Desiree Barry and Hester van der Walt

For translation work

Educators in the 14 pilot phase schools in the Western Cape

For testing the materials and providing feedback during 2009

Fanie Gous, Geoff Neil, Johan van Zijl and Wicus Leeuwner

For photographs

Jenny Johnson and Jenny Stipcich

For work done on CAPS allocations

Malene Schulze (DITSONG: National Museum of Cultural History, Pretoria)

For providing a copy of Erich Mayer's watercolour of the horsemill

Marianne Saddington

For editing and line drawings

McGregor Waldorf School

For assistance with the felt donkey pattern

Medeé Rall

For editing

Michael de Jongh

For photographs and assistance with the section on the Karretjiemense

Peta Jones

For providing photographs, drawings, information, resources and reviewing work

Robert Hart and Vida Allen (McGregor Museum, Kimberley)

For assistance with photographs and information

This and That stationers (McGregor)

For assistance in many small ways

Tony Saddington

For skilfully and patiently overseeing the production of this resource pack

Wendy Botha

For proofreading

Eseltjiesrus donkeys

The donkeys at Eseltjiesrus for providing first-hand information!